Competition Law and Policy: Cases, Materials and Commentary

Tim Frazer, Michael Waterson

Competition Law and Policy: Cases, Materials and Commentary Tim Frazer, Michael Waterson
This book examines the economic policies on which anti-trust law is based, covering the legal systems of the UK, the EC and USA. The latter is used as a comparative system to emphasize the diverse approaches of competition policy. The text presents a workable library of excerpts from cases, statutes and articles bearing on the law and policy of anti-trust. It aims to provide a source of reference for those already in the field and to present a self-contained explanation of the law and its underlying economic policies.
