MiNDSWEEPER: VOL #2 MEMOiRS OF A TARHEEL GUITAR PLAYER Lee Bridgers
Horror and comedy combine in this carnival ride memoir. After the hippies trashed the place, and before tourism and dotcom gentrification snuffed the spark of San Francisco, Mindsweeper was a rock band based in the Haight Ashbury. Hatched in a dangerous neighborhood within the surge of punk rock, Mindsweeper was the original shock rock outcast band, mocking popular music for the discriminating listeners of Dada rock. Now MiNDSWEEPER is a down and dirty time-machine of true stories that transport the reader to places on the map that no longer exist. Spend a magical night with Frank Zappa, the family man and Mindsweeper's biggest fan. Meet the musical laborers, the impresarios and street people. Visit the lair of the infamous Dirt Man of Haight Street and his demon possessed girlfriend. Surf the big waves of Hawaii, homeless and wild. Discover the horrors of a haunted farmhouse in North Carolina and a haunted apartment in San Francisco. Troll the streets of Amsterdam for sex and drugs and shared humanity. Meet the ghosts, prostitutes, natives, heroes, victims and scum of the Earth and learn to love every one of them. There are triumphant highs and terrifying lows here, surprising diversions and bizarre twists of fate. There is ecstasy, blood, bile, belly laughs and tears, and always another surprise on the next page.
