Unhinged Alliance: America and the European Community (Policy books of the Council on Foreign Relations) J.Robert Schaetzel
From the Book's Introduction: "The value of a book such as this depends uniquely on the experience and qualities of its author. Ambassador Schetzel has had a rich first-hand experience.... He appears in these pages not as an ex-diplomat writing his memoirs, but as an analyst drawing on his knowledge of the issues of American-European relations, of the process of policy-making, and of the people involved in the process on both sides. His main concern is with what has gone wrong between the United States and the European Community...."
