Prayers of Thanksgiving: Thank God Because You are Loved

"Do not be anxious over anything but in everything by prayer and supplication along with thanksgiving let your petitions be made known to God." - Philippians 4:6

Even early Christians were instructed by the Bible to pray to God and thank Him. Jesus, on several occasions showed his gratitude through fervent prayer. He thanked God before breaking the bread on Passover, before multiplying the bread and fish to feed five thousand people- He thanked God all day and night during His life on earth. How can thanksgiving through prayer help you change your life?

As a simulation activity, try to construct a letter of thanksgiving to someone who made a big difference in your life. It could be your parents, friends, siblings or marital partner. Write the letter with your heart. While constructing your message, what area of your relationship would you focus on: the positive or the negative? Of course, you would think of positive thinks because they will give you reasons to thank the person. Same goes with prayer. As you go through your words, you will begin to realize all the blessings that you receive. Thinking of what to thank God for will make you look into the brighter side of your life.
