Saying It So He'll Listen: You Can Have Better Communication with the Man in Your Life Dr. David Hawkins

She says one thing, but he hears something entirely different. Why does that happen so often, and what can a woman do to bridge the communication gap?

In his 25 years of private practice, psychologist David Hawkins has helped hundreds of women communicate more effectively with their husbands. In this concise and inspiring manual, he offers straightforward, intelligent answers to some nagging questions about dealing with sensitive topics in a relationship:

- How can a wife get a husband’s undivided attention?
- How can she be honest without hurting his feelings or starting a fight?
- Should she expect him to change?

Readers will find new motivation to press through to the ultimate goal of effective communication: reconciliation and greater intimacy in marriage.
