Your Heart's Desire Ian Shakles
Peter is a ten year old whose lonely life is shattered one day when a mysterious new shop opens in the town of Plumton where he lives. He is drawn into a world of danger, fruit, intrigue and fruit by his selfish parents who unwittingly make purchases from the shop's strange new owner, Count Backwards.
Delight and excitement soon turn to horror and despair as the people of Plumton are gradually brought under the sinister Count's spell. As they begin to realise that the Count has more on his mind than sales, the only hope for a safe return to normality lies in Peter's hands.
Will Peter save the day for his parents, his town and indeed the rest of the world? Or will he be tempted by the Count who promises to satisfy 'Your Heart's Desire'?
