Within these tales you'll see a child coming face-to-face with what lurks in the dark, a rat going to a rat brothel and getting more than he paid for, an amphibian discovering that the law must sometimes be broken, and a hunter missing the opening of deer season so he can hunt something else in his home. These tales will also attempt to answer such age-old questions as how do you wage war against household insects when the insects fight back, does the Grim Reaper use deodorant, can't a vampire live in peace, and what's for dinner (whether in this world or another)? All this and more in J. Berkman's 25 Tales of Fantasy, Science Fiction, and Horror.
