After All Lynn Emery
Michelle Toussaint is an ambitious television news reporter with her eye on the prize, becoming an anchorwoman at the station where she works. Love is on the back burner, until Anthony Hilliard comes back into her life. Anthony comes home with one thing on his mind: to win back the one woman he’s never been able to forget. Despite success as a contractor and having beautiful women pursue him, Michelle is the only one that makes him think about forever. His dream comes true when Michelle reveals she wants him just as much. Then the past comes back to haunt them. Michelle has the story that will put her on top, but there’s one big problem. Anthony’s uncle, a man he loves and admires, is up to his neck in dirty dealing. Intrigue and scandal threaten to turn all of their hopes to dust. They have to trust each other to save their future and their love.
