Amazingly Single Inspirations: Vol. 3: It’s all about living the single life, includes seven sections of blog postings which are completely devoted to the different aspects of a single Christian woman living an Amazingly Single life. Oftentimes single individuals tend to lose sight of the importance surrounding their singleness. Instead of focusing on the place God has them right now; they spend a lot of time looking forward towards the things they want and expect to accomplish. This volume of blog postings outlines how single Christian women should spend time celebrating this season in their lives because like everything else in life; this season of being single has purpose. A current state of singleness is not an indication of a single woman’s future but she has to be content where God has planted her for this time in her life. Each section within this volume of inspirational blog postings includes 6 postings that were written and created by the authoress throughout the year of 2011. Section topics include: it’s all about being single; it’s all about having fun; it’s all about family and good friends; it’s all about overcoming obstacles; it’s time to make a change; it’s all about a single woman’s career; and it’s all about rest and relaxation on Saturdays. Every day Tamara creates different faith-based and inspirational postings which include a little bit of Generation X flavor. It’s truly AMAZING to see God work because her posts represent the feelings and thoughts so many people are experiencing on a daily basis. Even though the blog site was designed for single women and is based on Tamara L.
