Catalyst 42 Dan Zahn
In CATALYST 42, Sid Acedia escapes his unbearable daily routine, and sets out on the open road with his Triumph Bonneville desperate to find his path. Somewhere between California and Colorado he becomes sidetracked from self-discovery. He observes a country that is lost in so many ways, stuck between the greed of the Baby Boomer generation and the apathy of the youth. Out of these two polarizing forces, he discovers something else: a sense of purpose. Along his journey he meets a cadre of colorful characters. Together they decide it is imperative to transform the Me Generation into Generation Us. They have the passion, the intelligence, and the drive. All they need now is a catalyst to spark a cultural rite of passage aimed at combating greed and apathy.
