The Fourth Edition provides in-depth coverage of the freedoms of speech, press and association, as well as the free exercise and establishment clauses. The material covers in freestanding form all the chapters and materials relating to the First Amendment from Sullivan and Gunther's Constitutional Law, Seventeenth Edition. Highlights of the new edition include the Supreme Court's latest word on such contemporary First Amendment problems as restricting corporate expenditures in political campaigns and placing religious symbols on public property. The casebook also examines traditional areas of First Amendment law in light of new problems such as controlling radical jihadist speech. Students using this casebook will be well-equipped to litigate any area of First Amendment law.
