Max and Barnaby: It's Fun to Compromise Raelene Dundon
This is the fourth book in the Max and Barnaby series and is designed by child psychologist Raelene Dundon to assist parents and educators to teach children with autism or social difficulties how to compromise with their friends.

- Topics covered are based on real examples of social difficulties commonly dealt with in clinical practice.
- The storybook format allows for repetition and reinforcement of ideas and skills, and provides an opportunity for discussion and social problem solving.
- Colourful illustrations, likeable characters and easy to read text help to engage and entertain children as they learn.
