Conscious Parenting Using A Course In Miracles Teri L. Hooper
Using A Course in Miracles when making parenting decisions can provide the guidance many parents are seeking. Its principles help parents shift their perceptions and therefore create Wouldn't it be nice if there were a comprehensive approach to parenting that provided parents with a feeling of peace, despite the craziness of the world they are experiencing with their children?

Facing new challenges with every stage in their child's development, parents do what they think is best. But all parents and experts seem to have their own ideas on how to raise children, and the resulting mishmash of direction and boundaries does little to relieve the stress of parenting.

A Course in Miracles for Parents is a guidebook that gives you practical solutions. Broken into different age groups, the book presents typical issues for each group and gives suggestions for resolving parenting problems.

Whatever the situation may be, step one is to take a few breaths and surrender your thoughts to the Holy Spirit within you. A Course in Miracles teaches that you are part of God; therefore, you have within you the means to create a solution to any problem you face. This guidebook shows how a shift in perception can give you the calmness and confidence you need for a truly joyful parenting experience.
