“No charge,” She purred, taking my nervous hand in hers and flipping it palm up, her fingertip tracing slowly down the middle.

The annual fall festival was in full swing, and I was definitely looking forward to the drinks, the games, the attractions... all of it! I got ready with my best friend, wearing one of my shortest skirts and tightest tank tops, and was ready to take over the festival when my 'one week relationship' ex, Aaron, decided to start hounding me about how quickly our 'relationship' ended and how I ought to give him another chance. How could I let him down easily? I don't even like guys... I just wanted to get out of there!

I ducked into one of the tents lined up along the boardwalk, quickly realizing by the darkness and the mysterious woman sitting at a table inside that it was a fortune teller. Now, I'm still not sure I believe in all of that, but I do believe in the immense pleasure she gave me, right there on the table inside of her tent with the rest of the world blocked out by just a thick curtain.
