Confessions of an interim manager

Jonathan Senior

Confessions of an interim manager Jonathan Senior
Humorous and lighthearted look at what it's really like living out of the back of your car as an independent consultant and troubleshooter. This second edition include the funny stories rewritten and the management lessons retold in a clearer more distinct voice.

The management tips and tricks remain as up to date as ever, with stark lessons for any would be manager, interim manager or consultant on almost every page.

The stories of self inflicted chaos and catastrophe in various organisations remain vividly in my mind even though some of them are almost ten years old. The children featured in the story are all grown up now and they found the first edition a good read...Different to what they thought... The book is not intended to be a diary, a "How to guide" or a text book. It is all of these things rolled into one.
