Spohn Criminal Courts: A Contemporary Perspective, third edition, authored by three leaders in the field, Craig Hemmens, David C. Brody, and Cassia Spohn, is comprehensive and accessible for undergraduate students. Criminal Courts explores all conventional topics (court structure, courtroom actors, and the trial and appeal process) as well as others seldom covered. A wealth of pedagogical tools adds valuable related content, ranging from the points of view of court process participants to comparative information to hotly debated topics.
