His Best Friend's Shy sister LaDonna Kelley
Kera O'Rourke had been in a horrible car accident that left her leg scarred and her self esteem very demolished, where she didn't care if she was noticed by any man or not. till the day she fell for her brothers best friend at a masquerade ball that her brother made her attend just after a make over. There she ran in to Chariton Ballas the one the only man she wanted. Who showed a very significant interest in her who in return took her very virginity that same night and left her with a surprise and then disappeared after a very heated argument from finding out who it was he was with. Kera moved on and a year later Kera comes face to face with Chariton only to realize that the box she thought she closed was far from closed it was open and it was stirring all around.
