Little Big Horn Jerry Robbins
Little Big Horn is a 70 minute production completed in the tradition of classic radio plays, with a full cast, music and sound effects. Highly detailed and accurate, you will find yourself riding with Lt. Col. George A. Custer as he leads his 7th Cavalry into the Valley of the Little Big Horn and into eternity in this truly spectacular audio dramatization. It is our heartfelt hope that we have done justice to the events of June 25th, 1876. It was a horrific battle, which saw no true victors. Custer's command lost their lives. The Plains Indians lost their way of life. This two cassette album includes the bonus production Bozeman Trail and the Fetterman Massacre (44 minutes). Had it not been for Custer's defeat at the hands of the Sioux, the story of The Bozemand Trail and The Fetterman Massacre would be known to every American today as one of our worst military disasters. While it was a defeat for the U.S. Cavalry, it was a victory for all the Native Americans. When the peace treaties were signed, the forts along the trail had to be abandoned and Red Cloud became the only Chief to win a war with the United States.
